By Jim Asbestos

WE'RE PRETTY REGULAR FELLERS

We Johns-Manville jobholders have a pretty swell general record of being on the job. Our record is only 3 and a half days lost out of every 100, while all industry averages 5 and a half. We J-M jobholders could do even better if all jobholders in all our J-M plants realized the seriousness of absenteeism.

Regularity or absenteeism seem to be catching like measles. So let's be careful which we spread . . . by our example.

SOME QUICKIE J-M FIGURES

Here are some fast figures on Johns-Manville at the end of the first half of 1943: Jobholders, 15,600. Payroll increase over first half of 1942, $3,664,028. Overtime, $1,278,257. Sales for half-year, $51,027,660. Taxes, $5,166,411. Profit, only about 4 cents out of each $1.

RESPECT FOR LABOR

Henry M. Wriston, president of Brown University, in conferring an honorary degree upon Lewis H. Brown, president of Johns-Manville, recently said:

"Having worked your way in the world, you early gained and steadily manifested that profound respect for labor and the sincere regard for the personal dignity of the workman which must underlie effective industrial relations."

LITTLE JOURNEYS TO J-M PLANTS

Today we will hop to Manville, N.J., and Waukegan, Ill.—two more of Johns-Manville's 17 plants. War work here, too—nearly 100 percent. These plants have rolled out and are still producing many square miles of Transite roofing and siding and hundreds of carloads of rock wool home insulation and miles of Transite pipe and electrical conduit for barracks, military bases, hospitals and cantonments.

J-M insulation, such as 35% Magnesia and Superex products, help make it possible for American warships to be driven at high speed.

Asbestos packings, packing cups, gaskets and other items are turned out for planes, submarines, war and troop ships. J-M asphalt tile flooring goes into naval air stations, military bases and submarine barracks the world over.

Waukegan makes Asbestos Flexboard for military structures all over the globe.

J-M brake linings and clutch facings are used in army and navy vehicles and planes. And don't forget the wartime importance of the fuel saved by Manville and Waukegan-produced rock wool insulation for homes.

Redwood City To Follow State Rulings

No matter what the San Mateo County War Council says or does about the state's attempted reclassification of most of the county as a class 2 civilian defense zone, Redwood City will follow state instruction, Mayor Floyd D. Granger said at a meeting of the Redwood City War Council Monday.

The future organization of civilian defense here remains uncertain today, however, pending official notification of changes by the State War Council.

Mayor Granger reported the Redwood City program has not been changed.

"We should not let down; we should stand pat until officially informed," he said.

Referring to the San Mateo County War Council's recent statement countermanning state efforts to reclassify this area and urging civilian defense organizations to keep every branch at the highest peak of efficiency, Granger said:

"... Whatever the state says goes, regardless of what the San Mateo council says."

Although retrenchment in some services was anticipated, members agreed that new recruits were still needed here. Fire Chief Mark E. Ryan said he was still very much in need of auxiliary firemen.

James Thornton, Red Cross chapter chairman, said the Red Cross needs more workers. The organization, he said, recently has been asked to help collect and pack 5000 items for Christmas packages for servicemen. Workers are also needed to roll bandages. The Allied offensives, he said, will mean more casualties, which in turn will mean more work for the Red Cross.

Louis Dematteis, chairman of the public relations committee, reported that the speech of Maj. Gen. Walter K. Wilson at the Sequoia High School on Wednesday of Civilian Defense Week, Sept. 27-Oct. 2, will be preceded by a 30 to 45 minutes' band concert by the Fourth Army Concert Band.

Alfred (Red) Morton, chairman of the parade committee reported response to date from organizations invited to participate in a civilian defense parade had been light. Heads of the services will meet Friday to

YMCA: V. M. Robertson New Peninsula Secretary

V. M. Robertson of St. Louis is the newly-appointed executive secretary of the Peninsula YMCA, according to Ira H. Polter, chairman of the district board of managers. A public reception will be held for Robertson Sunday afternoon, Sept. 26, the details of which will be announced.

V. M. ROBERTSON

nounced at a later date by Carl Cunningham, chairman of the reception committee.

Robertson has been executive secretary of the Carondelet branch of the St. Louis YMCA where he formerly was Northside Boys Work Secretary and was previously a county secretary in Missouri.

The new executive received his AB degree in 1931 at Otterbein University in Ohio and his Master's degree at Washington University.

Robertson is 36 years of age and will bring with him his wife and one child.

Quoting from a letter written by the St. Louis secretary, Wal-discuss the parade further and make a final decision.

Fred Carbine, zone co-ordinator, suggested that incidents in future defense drills originate with wardens rather than in the control center, thus giving control center operators more realistic practice. Mayor Granger said such incident drills had been used in the past and the council planned to use the method in the next drill.

CD Matrons Plan Bond Drive

One-hundred block and district matrons met Tuesday in the city council chambers to receive instructions from Mrs. Roy Peterson, chairman of the matrons' war bond committee, regarding the citywide canvass of homes to be conducted by this organization from Sept. 18 to 27.

A committee of six zone captains of which Mrs. Peterson is chairman will organize war bond sale committees in their zones, in co-operation with the district matrons who will be responsible for the coverage in their respective districts.

C. A. Iverson and Amerigo Rossi, members of the war bond finance committee, and Postmaster Robert E. O'Connell Jr., instructed women in details of filling out various forms. Mrs. A. S. Kalenborn, chairman of block leaders, outlined procedure to be followed by the matrons in their blocks.

All householders will be contacted and urged to purchase at least one bond in addition to their regular monthly purchases during the Third War Loan drive.

Redwood City Woman Sues for Divorce

Mrs. Mae Strauss of 430 Ninth Ave. today sought divorce in superior court at Redwood City from Leonard E. Strauss, whom she charged with striking, choking and beating her.

Mrs. Strauss asks custody of their two children, Gloria Mae Strauss, 20, and Edgar L. Strauss, 11, and a "reasonable amount" for her support. She claims $100 a month would be a reasonable amount. Besides community property and $125 for attorney fees and costs, she also asks an order restraining Strauss from molesting her.

From Lumberman

Mrs. Phoebe W. Elmer, 418 Virginia Ave., San Mateo, today asked superior court at Redwood City to grant her a divorce from Jacob O. Elmer, lumber wholesaler. She alleged extreme cruelty.

The Elmers were married in New Orleans, La., Jan. 27, 1919, and separated May 18, 1943. Mrs. Elmer declares that her husband earned $12,000 in 1942 from commissions in the lumber business. She asks $100 a month temporary alimony, $150 attorney fees and $15 costs. They have no children.

Extinguishes Fire

Mrs. Whipple Files
Petition for Letters

Mrs. Marcia Whipple, 2012 Monroe Ave., Belmont, today petitioned superior court at Redwood City for letters of administration of the estate of her son, Lt. Robert W. Whipple, 24, who died June 11 in a Japanese concentration camp.

Mrs. Whipple nominated another son, Luster B. Whipple, to act as administrator. His personal property was valued at $2000. He died intestate.

Lieutenant Whipple, a graduate of Sequoia High School and San Mateo Junior College, was a pilot in the army air force. A hero of Bataan, he was twice decorated for valor under fire by Gen. Douglas MacArthur. He was listed last December as a prisoner of the Japanese in the Philippines.

CANNED AT HOME and RATION FREE

Millions of American families are going to eat better this winter because the old-fashioned custom of "putting up" fruits and vegetables has come back for the duration.

But in canning vegetables, don't rely on old-fashioned methods. Be safe as well as thrifty. Ask the advice of the United States Department of Agriculture or your State Extension service. Non-acid vegetables should not be canned at home unless prepared in a pressure cooker.

Eat plenty of fresh vegetables while they're available. If you decide to can the surplus from your Victory Garden, or vegetables bought in the market, be sure the methods you use are modern—and be sure they're safe.

Police Pay Boosted $10 Monthly

In routine follow-up business which included discussion of housing problems, increasing the compensation of members of the Menlo Park Police Department $10 a month and appropriating $15 a month for the payment of a part-time city accountant, the Menlo Park City Council at its regular fortnightly meeting in city hall this week made a recommendation to fill a recently vacated post in the city's planning commission.

Larry Johnston, manager of the Menlo Park Branch of the Bank of America, was recommended as the successor to Loren East, whose resignation was accepted by the planning commission Monday night because he is moving to Los Angeles.

The council heard the request of Jay Franklin, president of the Owners' Modern Construction Co., who asked a change in zoning ordinance B which would permit him to reduce the width of five lots in order that he might build his sanctioned duplex unit to a more symmetrical pattern.

The five houses, which will stand on the lot at Cherry and Pine Sts., Menlo Park, Mr. Franklin told the council, will cost $37,500 exclusive of the lots. He explained that he had the square-footage required by ordinance and that he had ample space to comply with requirements and wanted only to change the arrangement in the interests of beauty.

After hearing the opinion of councilmen and City Atty. James T. O'Keefe Jr. the matter was referred to the planning commission. Also referred to the commission was the request of

E. M. Rankin, Menlo Park real estate broker, who asked for a new interpretation of a zoning ordinance to clarify the ambiguous meaning of measurements on lots.

The suggestion of Lloyd Neumann, representing the Third War Loan Campaign in Menlo Park, who sought to sell bonds to the city, was rejected. The council said it could see no advantage in taking money already invested in government bonds by the bank to buy other government bonds. It would be no aid to the war effort, councilmen held.

Routine monthly bills were allowed.

SAFEWAY Homemakers' Guide

Last Call for Home Canning

We always have wound up the canning season at home by making sauerkraut. Probably the reason is because the late cabbage as a rule seems so much better and is so firm.

Homemade sauerkraut makes me think of all the good-tasting Fall and Winter dinners we are going to have. Our favorite is sauerkraut with weiners and spareribs—and dumplings (made right on top the kraut), sliced onions in vinegar, with baked apple and gingerbread for dessert.

TO MAKE KRAUT IN JARS

Mix shredded cabbage with salt, using ½ tablespoon salt to each quart cabbage. Pack firmly into sterilized glass jars, fill with cold water, adjust covers fairly tight. Store in comfortably warm place (75° to 85° F.) and where possible overflow of liquid will do no harm. If scum forms, remove it. The kraut will ferment or cure for a few days, and will be ready to use in a month. At that time, drain off juice, heat to boiling, pour over kraut again, and seal tight. Do not process.

SAUERKRAUT

½ lb. (¾ cup) cooking salt

Select firm, mature heads of cabbage. Remove outer leaves; wash well; quarter, remove core; slice very fine. Mix 5 lbs. (about 7½ qts.) shredded cabbage with 2 oz. (3½ tbsps.) salt; place in deep crock or tight wooden keg; tamp down firmly with wooden masher. Repeat until all cabbage is used. Press down, cover with clean white cloth, then with plate or round wooden board small enough to fit down inside crock; weight down with a clean rock to keep cabbage covered with brine that forms. Keep in a warm place, 75° to 85° F. Inspect each day; remove scum with spoon; rinse cloth in clear water.

Kraut will be "cured" (appearance and taste will tell) in 10 to 20 days, depending upon amount of cabbage and temperature.

Kraut may be left in crock or keg all winter, in a cold cellar or basement (take care to remove any scum) or it may be canned from 1 to 3 months after curing. To can: drain off juice, pack cold kraut into hot sterilized fruit jars to ½ inch from top; heat juice to boiling, pour over kraut, seal, store in cool dark place. Do not process.

NOTE.—Cooking salt is salt without a filler and comes in bags.

Wife's Suit for Divorce Nearly Costs Husband's Life

Filing of a divorce suit in superior court at Redwood City Tuesday brought repercussions early Wednesday when Basil R. Vaughan, 292 Willow Rd. East Palo Alto, attempted to take his own life, the sheriff's office reported.

Vaughan Tuesday was sued for divorce by Agnes Louise Vaughan, who charged that he repeatedly struck and cursed her, twisted her arm, choked her and on one occasion threatened to kill her. She alleged that on Sunday Vaughan struck and beat her and she suffered contusions and bruises that covered two feet in circumference.

At 1:45 a.m. Wednesday, Mrs. Vaughan's father, W. R. Fisk, who lives in the same house with the Vaughans, awakened and discovered Vaughan had his head in the gas oven with the gas turned on, he told deputy sheriffs. Fisk said he pulled Vaughan away from the stove and took him to the front room, where a next-door neighbor gave him artificial respiration until the arrival of the Menlo Park Fire Dept. Firemen worked on Vaughan, who was unconscious, with an oxygen mask for 15 minutes. He was then taken by ambulance to Community Hospital in San Mateo.

Vaughan was served with divorce papers when he returned home from work at Bethlehem Steel Corp. in San Francisco yesterday.

Fisk told the sheriff's office that Mrs. Vaughan had taken her two children, David R., 6, and Beverly Louise, 4, to the home of her sister, Mrs. Earl Mudgett, in Los Banos.

In her suit filed yesterday Mrs. Vaughan asked sole custody of the children, $150 a month support, $100 attorney fees, and an order restraining Vaughan from visiting her home, or annoying or molesting her or the children.

Draft Office To Close

George F. Paul, chief clerk of Redwood City-San Carlos-Belmont Selective Service Board 106, today announced that the local draft board office will be open only between the hours of 3 to 5 p.m. until Sept. 30.

No telephone calls will be answered, Paul said.

The restricted hours were ordered by Col. Kenneth H. Leitch, state selective service director, for all draft boards in the state so that they may complete their inventories of available manpower.

During the hours in which the offices are closed the boards will review their records and the classifications which have been made since the order to reclassify was received from national headquarters Aug. 23.

Until this work and the October inductions are completed it will not be known whether any or how many California fathers will be required for the call which is scheduled for Oct. 26 to 31, Colonel Leitch said.

Housing Center Moves Quarters

In order to give better service to applicants for housing, the San Mateo County War Housing Center in Burlingame, formerly located at 1615 Floribunda Ave., has moved to 1108 Burlingame Ave.

The new location is half a block from the railroad station and the bus and car lines.

A report received here today from the center reports that a critical shortage of all types of accommodations continues. One of the war industries in the county has lost 700 workers in the past five months because of their inability to find decent living quarters. The center asks that all vacancies be listed with them to help alleviate the shortage.

About two and a half million trained workers in the U. S. are now turning out combat and cargo planes.

HOUSING: NHA Approves 600 New Dwelling Units

Six hundred new dwellings, privately financed and designed for war workers in this area, have received the approval of the National Housing Agency and will be built in San Mateo County during the next six months, Robert Rumsey, director of the San Francisco district for National Housing Agency, announced.

This is the second extensive housing program in the county to receive the approval of the housing authority since April, when 650 similar housing units were approved. Many of this first group have been completed, Rumsey said, and others are nearing completion this month.

The new program of building is designed, he said, to meet the needs of employees of Pan American Air Lines, whose activities will shortly be transferred from Treasure Island to Mills Field.

period before they may be offered for sale.

He explained that while they would be "war houses," they would be well constructed, but without frills. Locations selected, he estimated, would likely see groups of 25 to 50 homes of the same type in the same location.

Gregory Estate Goes to Widow

Dr. Frank Starr Gregory, a physician in this community for 28 years, left his entire estate to his wife, Mrs. Della Cora Gregory, 935 Durlston Rd., a petition for probate of will on file in superior court here revealed. The estate consisted of community property and no value was given.

Mrs. Gregory was named executrix in a will dated Aug. 3, 1927. Dr. Gregory died Aug. 21 a few hours after he suffered a heart attack at Mills Memorial Hospital in San Mateo while performing an operation.

R.C. Fire Department Answers Two Calls

A grass fire on Bayshore Hwy. near Alden St. reported shortly after 5 o'clock Tuesday was out of the Redwood City Fire Department.

The department responded to a false alarm turned in from Broadway and Winslow St. at 12:37 a.m. today and another false alarm turned in at 8:48 a.m. from Hazey Ave. and Madrone St.

Ration Board Advises Truck Operators

Truck operators when applying at the local rationing board for their fourth quarter rations should bring with them their certificates of war necessity showing the number of gallons which have been allowed by the Office of Defense Transportation.

This was the statement made today at the War Price and Rationing Board. No rations can be issued without these certificates.
